STUDENT FLIGHT DEVIATION REQUEST FORM

Although Vistas In Education is not a travel agency, we may be able to arrange for a participant to fly back directly from Paris to his/her original departure city in the U.S. after the group's return date. The availability of this option depends on the airline that the group is using and the airline's individual restrictions. If your son or daughter is interested in a flight deviation, please call VIE to find out if this option is possible.

Deviation requests are not guaranteed. When available, there is a non-refundable $200 fee plus any additional costs that are imposed by the airline. VIE will notify you if there is any additional charge before confirming the new return date. Please be sure to include your contact information below.

Dear VIE:
